FOREWORD

The chief aim and hope of the staff this year has been to record the events of these nine months in as attractive and interesting way as possible. Our wish is that you find the 1947-48 Lobo interesting, representative of life in Cisco High School and conducive to memory as the years go by.

THE EDITOR

Dear Lois,

you should know from my actions that I think you are one of the sweetest, most understanding, and cutest girls I know. Ever since you have been here, which hasn't been too long, we have been regular ole buddies. We have had lots & lots of fun together in this short while & yes, of course, we've had our share of "little troubles" in there too haven't I? (mostly). I sure thank you for being so understanding those many times, you have been a great pal in that way. I don't know what I should have done without you. I sure did have fun on our trips & I will never forget it. Oh yes, Lois, I thank & thank you for those thousands of times you have come & taken me to the P.O. & store you don't know how grateful I am & I think it's mighty sweet of you to be so thoughtful. I wish you all the luck & happiness in the world for you deserve it. Here is only one thing that I find wrong with you & it is your "moods". I'd give anything if I could break you of it. I'll remember you always & our good times. Come to see me this summer, please! Lots of luck in college & with Bill.

DEDICATION

Whether they lose or win, it may be heard that they are good sports. For this reason the Senior Class of Cisco High School proudly dedicates the 1947-48 Lobo Annual to the loyal and brave boys of the Lobo football team.

I shall always think of you
as "Lois" because of that corrupt joke.
But I like that joke because it got us acquainted. I remember thinking you just couldn't be a senior because you were so sweet and innocent. (How wrong I was!)
Anyway, Loisey, I think you're a precious little (Pictured) Wayne Hayes and Zelda Sandler, second place; June Alexander and Joe Ed Schaefer first place; Reba Honea and Fournoy Cleveland, third place. Other contestants: J. C. Suggs, Ray Gene Rylee, Arthur West, Phillip Porter, Bobby White, Carlene Pence, Elaine Ziehr, Katie Lou Atkins, Barbara Anderson, Anita Carlin.

The physical Education Department presented to the students of Cisco High School a posture contest. This contest was to make the student body realize the importance of good posture. There were three judges—Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. R. H. Cutting and Mr. John Webb. The judges selected six winners, three girls and three boys, who were awarded first, second, and third places. The boy and girl receiving first place were called the Prince and Princess of Posture.

Miss Jane Huestis furnished the music.

Can't find any place else

your cuts, all the rest of the C.H.S. girls do. You just keep that smile and sense of humor and you'll always have me for an admirer. I know that means a lot. Ha!
